

Case Study
By
John Ortega
Environmental Compliance Inspector II
Central Contra Costa Sanitary District

Great Place for Learning

Great Athletics

Not so great at protecting the storm drain

Background

- Nestled in the Town of Moraga
- Approx. 3,900 Students
- Approx. 420 acres campus
- One of the Town's largest businesses
- Under an Industrial User Permit

- Contracted to manage food service facilities at St. Mary's College
- 700 facilities management sites
- 9.3 million meals served every day
- 120,000 employees in North America
- 8.0 billion (USD) in annual revenue (Fiscal Year 2010)

Prior Violation History

2003- 2007

- 2003 WN & NOVs issued for pollutant exposure
- 2004 WN issued for both Prohibited Discharge and Pollutant Exposure
- 2005 & 2007 WN issued for Pollutant Exposure

Nature of Violations

- Stated practice of outside washing
- No secondary containment
- Leaking algaecide container
- Tallow Bin lid open
- Wash water escaping vehicle wash pad

In The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

The Beginning

(September 23, 2008)

Continuing The Tradition

(October 28, 2008)

Continuing the Tradition

(October 28, 2008)

Continuing the Tradition

(October 28, 2008)

The Next Day

(October 29, 2008)

The Next Day

(October 29, 2008)

The Next Day

(October 29, 2008)

November 5, 2008

Cinco De Mayo 2010

Cinco De Mayo 2010

Cinco De Mayo 2010

Cinco De Mayo 2010

Cinco De Mayo 2010

October 20, 2010

During a scheduled Pretreatment/Storm Water Inspection

October 20, 2010

During a scheduled Pretreatment/Storm Water Inspection

November 4, 2010

November 4, 2010

January 21, 2011

January 21, 2011

January 21, 2011

Wash Pad Area

January 21, 2011

Wash Pad Area

01/21/2011

January 26, 2011

Maintenance Equipment Washing

Case Status

- Multiple NOV's have been issued to both St. Mary's College and Sodexo for the same type of violation (2008-2011).
- The relationship between the Town and the College is unique.
- Formal Enforcement is in the referral process.

Questions?

John Ortega

Environmental Compliance Inspector II

Central Contra Costa Sanitary District

Jortega@centralsan.org

(925)957-7611